Getting around Glasgow

Glasgow is an easy city to find your way around. Built on a grid system, it's compact to navigate, either on foot or public transport.

Walking:

Glasgow is a very walkable city, especially in the city centre, so you can easily explore it on foot whilst taking in the beautiful buildings and architecture around you. Get to know Glasgow better with the Glasgow Walking app developed by Glasgow City Council, and learn about the history of the city as you discover some of its hidden gems on the walking routes.

Subway

The Subway is the easiest way to get around the City Centre and West End of Glasgow. Running every 5 minutes at peak times, it takes just 24 minutes to complete a circuit of the 15 stations. Tickets start from £1.40. Download the Glasgow Subway map to find your way.

Train

Glasgow Central Station links Glasgow by rail to the south, with Glasgow Queen Street Station operating routes mainly to Edinburgh & the north. Check out the ScotRail website for all the routes and timetables.

Taxi

Glasgow's taxi drivers are some of the friendliest (and most chatty!) in the world. Glasgow Taxis, the distinctive black cabs, operate 5 and 6 seater cabs in and around the city. Look out for their People Make Glasgow ruby coloured cabs too! If their yellow light is on they can be flagged down on the street, or alternatively call +44 (0) 141 429 70 70 to book.

Bus

Over the past 10 years, First Bus Glasgow have invested over £100 million in new buses and technology for the Greater Glasgow network and they now operate over 100 routes across the city.

City Sightseeing Bus

The City Sightseeing Glasgow open top tour is one of the most convenient and popular ways to visit Glasgow's top tourist attractions and iconic sights.

Serving The People's Palace, Glasgow Cathedral, The Riverside Museum, Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum and The Clydeside Distillery, the hop-on-hop-off is a fun way for children and adults alike to enjoy the city.

The open-top tour buses operate all year round from 0930 until 1630 and the complete tour lasts approximately 1 hour 20 mins. During the summer it operates every 10 minutes (until 1650 then every 20 mins until 1820), autumn every 15 minutes and every 30 minutes over the winter.

Tickets are available online, from driver or pavement staff and are valid for 1 or 2 consecutive days. You can hop-on and hop-off as often as you like at any of the 21 stops on the route.

Bicycle

Cycling around Glasgow is a quick, easy and fun way to get see the city! Nextbike Glasgow has 400 bikes for hire in 43 locations, available 24/7. You can rent a bike via nextbike's Android/iPhone App, by the on-bike computer, or by phoning +44 (0)20 816 69851. Rental starts at £1 for the first 30 minutes.
